SUPPORTING EARTH SCIENCES @ Cambridge

We are seeking support for all aspects of the Department's activities. If you would like to support us by making a gift, of whatever size, we would be most grateful.

Dear World...
Yours, Cambridge

The campaign for the University and Colleges of Cambridge

£60 pays for a student rail-fare for the second year mapping course to Cumbria

£180 pays for a graduate student to demonstrate on the first year field course to Arran

£250 contributes towards a graduate student's travel costs to attend an international conference

£500 pays the costs of the lab facilities used by a typical fourth year student research project

£750 pays for one third year student to do a four-week mapping project in the UK

£1,300 pays the hire cost of two minibuses on the annual Greek field trip

£5,000 contributes to the cost of a graduate studentship for students in receipt of part funding from sponsors

£30,000 (EU)/ £50,000 (non-EU) pays for one year of a PhD studentship

Notes:

1. You can cancel the declaration at any time by notifying the University of Cambridge.
2. If in the future your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that Charities and Community Amateur Sports Clubs reclaims, you can cancel your declaration (see note 1).
3. If you pay tax at the higher rate (additional rate) you can claim further tax relief in your Self-Assessment tax return.
4. If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift Aid tax relief, please contact the University of Cambridge or visit the HM Revenue & Customs website www.gov.uk/claim-gift-aid
5. Please notify the University of Cambridge if you change your name or address while the declaration is still in force.

I do not pay UK income or capital gains tax
